

Guidelines for Discussions

"Who is wise? One who learns from all people."

Ethics of our Ancestors 4:1.

We invite grandparents and members of their families along with academics and practitioners to initiate and participate in web-based discussions. Consider posting ideas you'd like to share with others: Fun activities for grandchildren, best challah recipes, ideas for a fabulous Passover Seder. Here are some suggestions for discussion topics.

- Please post ideas you would like to share with others:
 - Fun activities for grandchildren.
 - Best challah recipes.
 - Ideas for a different family Passover Seder.
 - Interesting family travel suggestions.
- Please also post questions and concerns you may have and that others may be experiencing:
 - I have disagreements with my child about raising grandchildren.
 - What role should I play in advancing my grandchild's Jewish identity?
 - My grandchild lives 600 miles away from me. How can I maintain a meaningful relationship with her?

Let the conversation begin!

Conversation Guidelines:

Please be respectful of others in initiating or responding to a conversation. We will not approve content that:

- Contains derogatory or inflammatory language.
- Is political in nature – that promotes or disparages local, national or international political candidates, parties, positions or beliefs.
- Seeks to proselytize or denigrate a religious or cultural system of belief or expression.
- Is posted solely for commercial purposes.

Please email info@jewishgrandparentsnetwork.org with questions.