

Our Adult Children's Voices Matter: What Parents Want Grandparents to Know

Parent coach Adrian Kalikow asked 160 clients who are parents of children ages infant to high school: What is the one message you would most like to share with your children's grandparents?

7 themes emerged from the adult children's responses:

1. Listen without judgment.
2. It's our turn. Trust us.
3. Respect us and our children.
4. Time is the best gift you can give us.
5. Put yourself in our shoes.
6. Times have changed.
7. We love and appreciate you!

Watch the full recording to hear the details:
<https://jewishgrandparentsnetwork.org/video-library/>

